1. Prior Domestic Incident of Assault in a Police or Criminal Record

Count any incident in which the person being assessed assaulted his/her current or former intimate or dating partner and/or that victim's child, and which is recorded in a police report or criminal record.

- ✓ Pre-index incident must have been reported to the police (either at time of assault or by subsequent report) and occurred on a separate occasion before the index assault.
- ✓ If the pre-index assault is part of a cluster of assaults documented in one police report, count any assault that occurred at least 24 hours before the index assault as a prior domestic incident.
- ✓ "Assault" for the purposes of this item is defined as physical contact or the use or attempted use of a weapon to contact the victim's body, or a threat of harm made with a weapon in hand.
- ✓ If you do not have a detailed description of the incident, count a criminal charge of assault or other violent offense against a domestic victim as a domestic incident.
- ✓ An arrest or conviction is not necessary.
- ✓ If the available documentation indicates that an item might be present, but the information is unclear or ambiguous, the item may be scored with a "?".
- ✓ A criminal history record check is advised for this item.
- ✗ Does not count incidents involving only pets or property.
- ✗ Does not count incidents involving only strangers, friends, parents, siblings or other family members.

- ✓ "Assault" for the purposes of this item is defined as physical contact or the use or attempted use of a weapon to contact the victim's body, or a threat of harm made with a weapon in hand.
- ✓ If you don't have a detailed description of the incident, count a criminal charge of assault or other violent offense against a non-domestic victim as a non-domestic incident. However, it must have been reported to the police, and occurred on a separate occasion before the index incident.
- ✓ If the pre-index assault is reported in the same report as the index assault, count it as a prior incident only if it occurred at least 24 hours before the index assault.
